NORTH ATLANTIC BRANDED FARES

KLM and AIR FRANCE are introducing new fares for flights between Europe and USA and/or Canada. As of 7 December 2017, we will offer our Economy Class customers 3 different ticket options. After selecting their preferred fare they can choose to add various extra services.

The names of the three fare products are Light, Standard and Standard +.

Light

This offers the customer the lowest available fare, including cabin baggage. The fare does not include any checked baggage allowance; however, customer can purchase baggage as a paid option during booking or at a later stage.

The ticket is non-refundable but changeable at a fee (€150).

This fare is not combinable with the Standard and Standard + fares.

Customers will continue to earn Flying Blue Miles.

Standard

This fare includes 1 piece of checked baggage. Any additional bag can be purchased as a paid option,

The ticket is non-refundable but can be changed at a fee (€150),

Customers will continue to earn Flying Blue Miles.

Standard +

This is a more flexible fare than the Standard fare. Semi-Flex and Full-Flex fares are gathered in this brand. Standard + offers the customer the ability to change the ticket free of charge and is also refundable at a fee when booked in the Semi-Flex fare booking classes. When Full-Flex fares are booked the customer has the ability to change and refund the ticket for free.

The Standard + fare includes 1 piece of checked baggage.

Customers will continue to earn Flying Blue Miles.
